

Humanitarian Legal Assistance Foundation

2007 Accomplishment Report

For 2007, the Humanitarian Legal Assistance Foundation continued to work towards the realization of its Vision through its three major programs namely, Legal Assistance Program, Empowerment Program and Advocacy Program.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (LAP)

Through its Legal Assistance Program, HLAF was able to provide direct legal services to clients all over Metro Manila. HLAF provided the following legal services:

- Providing Legal Advice to Clients;
- Preparing legal documents and Motions for the clients to be signed by the Public Attorney;
- Following up the client’s case wherever they may be pending; and
- Legal Representation in Courts;

For this year, HLAF in partnership with the Commission on Human Rights and the Juvenile Justice Network, visited Police Stations in Metro Manila to monitor if Minors were still detained in their lock-up facilities. If there are minors within the Police Lock-Ups, HLAF helped in releasing or transferring the minors.

The beneficiaries of the Legal Assistance Program for this year are:

- Children in Conflict with the Law detained at the Center for Restorative Activities, Development and Learning Experiences (CRADLE) in Bicutan;
- Inmates of Quezon City Jail and Taguig Municipal Jail; and
- The detained Children in Conflict with the law in the police lock-ups in Quezon City, Caloocan City, Malabon City, Navotas City and Valenzuela City.

For the year 2007, the Humanitarian Legal Assistance Foundation through its Legal Assistance Program facilitated the release of 85 detention prisoners from all over the National Capital Region.

EMPOWERMENT PROGRAM

Education and popularization of our laws is central to HLAF’S Decongestion Program. HLAF believes that by empowering the people and the Enforcement Officers, illegal arrests and arbitrary detentions will be prevented eventually decongesting the jails by removing those illegally detained persons.

HLAF popularized the following laws:

- Criminal Law
- Criminal Procedure
- Rights of the Accused
- Government Structures
- Modes of Release
- Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act
- Violence Against Women and their Children Act
- Child Abuse Law
- Dangerous Drugs Act of 2002

HLAF also talked about the Jail Conditions, Legal Issues and Legal Challenges inside the Jails and Jail Decongestion.

The beneficiaries of HLAF’s EMPOWERMENT Program were

- Inmates of Quezon City Jail and Mandaluyong City Jail
- Clinical Legal Education Students of Ateneo Law School
- Barangay Officials and Residents of CHILDSHOPE ASIA’s partner communities in Manila and Pasay city
- Barangay Officials of Makati City; and
- Various communities and Organizations who seek HLAF’s technical expertise.

For 2007, HLAF conducted 37 different trainings.
