IMPORTANT EVENTS IN 2009

In 2009 HLAf

1. Implemented and completed its PARALEGAL COORDINATORS PROJECT as supported by the INTERNATIONAL BRIDGES to JUSTICE FOUNDATION (IBJ) based in Geneva, Switzerland under its JUSTICE MAKERS PROJECT. In 2008 HLAf won the IBJ's search an innovative project. HLAf was beneficiary to a grant amounting to US$ 5000.
2. Completed Training Program under its PARALEGAL COORDINATOR PROJECT in TAGUIG CITY JAIL.
3. Started a PARALEGAL COORDINATORS PROJECT in Makati City Jail.
4. Was accredited by the ATENEO LAW SCHOOL to host interns under the school's APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM
5. Won in 2009 KASAMA Search for Most Innovative Project. HLAf was chosen by the Australian Embassy and the New Zealand Embassy and was given a grant of more than 1.5 Million for the implementation of the PARALEGAL COORDINATOR'S PROJECT in four more jails within Metro Manila

LEGAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

For the year 2009, HLAf facilitated the release of one thousand three hundred and ninety-one (1,391) detention prisoners. Unrecorded are the countless follow-up efforts and pieces of legal advice provided to client organizations.

TOTAL	1	48	60	78	55	104	110	107	126	111	273	318	1391

Compared to the previous years, 2009 shows a significant increase in HLAf assisted releases. This is primarily due to the fact that HLAf has successfully completed its PARALEGAL COORDINATOR'S project in three jails namely, Mandaluyong City Jail, Taguig City Jail and Manila City Jail. The Paralegal Coordinator's in these jails had given all their efforts to assist the release of their fellow inmates.

HLAF RELEASES (2004-2009)

HLAF's methodology remains the same through the years. As a legal developmental NGO, HLAf continues to provide direct legal services to clients. HLAf's lawyers, paralegal officers and volunteer law students provide these services by

- Providing Legal Advice to clients;
- Preparing Legal Documents and Motions to be signed by the Public Attorney;
- Following up the client's case wherever they may be pending;
- Legal Representation in Courts
- Facilitating the immediate release of Children in Conflict with the Law from Police Station Lock-ups; and
- Providing Technical Support to clients with regard to the clients' implementation of their own Jail Decongestion Program and the implementation of the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act.

While HLAf's INMATE PARALEGAL COORDINATORS (who are trained through HLAf's empowerment program) provide legal assistance to their fellow inmates by:

- Explaining to their fellow inmates simple criminal procedures
- Explaining to their fellow inmates simple facts about their cases
- Following up the cases of their fellow inmates in court
- Helping their fellow inmates preparing letters and affidavits for their case.

For 2009, HLAf expanded its clientele by accepting requests for legal assistance from various government and non-government agencies. Among HLAf's clients are

- The Children in Conflict with the Law detained in the Center for Restorative Activities, Development and Learning Experiences (CRADLE) in Bicutan;
- The Children in Conflict with the Law detained in various Police Station Lock up in National Capital Region;
- The Inmates of Quezon City Jail, Mandaluyong City Jail, Taguig City Jail and Manila City Jail.

Government Agencies who regularly sought HLAf's legal advice and counsel in 2009 were

- The Juvenile Justice and Welfare Council
- DSWD-NCR
- Local Social Welfare and Development of Malabon
- Local Social Welfare and Development of Parañaque
- Local Social Welfare and Development of Mandaluyong
